(2) Every rule made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which
10 may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both the Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be
15 of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

India is the land of many great rivers. Floods occur in almost all river basins of the country. The water resources of the country are not being fully utilized. Every year there are floods in some parts of the country which cause immense loss of life and property. It has been observed that at the same time, there is flood in one part of the country and the other part is affected by drought. The national resources are damaged by floods and drought. The problem, therefore, needs to be addressed urgently to mitigate the affects of floods and droughts.

Therefore, it is expedient in public interest to evolve an integrated and scientific approach to deal with the problem of frequent occurrence of floods and drought and to draw out a national plan fixing priorities for implementation of strategies in the future.

The Bill seeks to provide for the constitution of a National Flood Control Board to suggest measures to prevent flood and deal with the problem of drought in the country.

Hence this Bill.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 3 of the Bill provides for constitution of a National Flood and Drought Control Board. Clause 4 provides inter alia for a time bound action plan for inter-linking of rivers and installing of flood forecasting system. Clause 5 provides that the expenditure incurred on implementation of the provisions of this Act shall be borne by the Central Government and State Governments. The Bill, therefore, if enacted, would involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. It is likely to involve a recurring expenditure of about rupees one hundred crore per annum.

A non-recurring expenditure of about rupees one hundred crore is also likely to be incurred.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 8 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to frame rules for carrying out the purposes of the Bill. The rules will relate to matters of detail only and as such the delegation of legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.
