STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The language we speak helps define who we are and adds to our sense of identity. It is an inalienable right conforming to the principles embodied in the United Nations International Convention on Civil and Political Rights and according to the spirit of Part III of the Constitution of India. It is, therefore, pertinent to make provisions that promote the linguistic and cultural diversity of India and not to stifle it.

2. In a democracy, the laws it applies must be understandable to all its citizens. Moreover, there can be no discrimination between people belonging to different states. If residents of one State are given the privilege to conduct official business in their mother tongue, the same privilege must be extended to all citizens. In the official dealings with institutions, all citizens must have the right to use their own regional language. While national integration is of paramount importance, we as a Union of States must also actively promote the freedom of its peoples to speak and write their own language.

3. India must be committed to maintaining its multilingual character. It is important for us to realize that the protection and promotion of regional languages represent an important contribution to the building of an India based on the principles of democracy and cultural diversity within the framework of national sovereignty and territorial integrity.

The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.

Clause 5 of the Bill provides that an English translation must be provided at all times for all communications made for official purposes.
