ANSWER

(SHRI RAM KRIPAL YADAV)

(a): Ministry is undertaking a skill development program for rural poor youth through Rural Self Employment Training Institutes (RSETIs) as part of its National Rural Livelihoods Mission (NRLM) in order to diversify household income of rural poor. Ministry supports the cost of skilling of rural poor youth to RSETIs through State Governments concerned.

(b): There are 586 RSETIs located in 566 Districts in 29 States and 4 Union Territories. RSETIs provide training in Agriculture, Process, Product and General Entrepreneurship Development Programmes (EDP) courses to candidates leading to self employment. Some candidates take up wage employment also. As per available information (as on 28.2.2018) out of 374422 candidates trained in RSETIs in the FY 2017-18, a total of 193485 belong to rural poor.

(c): RSETI is a three-way partnership amongst Ministry of Rural Development, State Government and Banks. There are 31 participating banks in RSETI.
