MINISTRY OF CULTURE
RAJYA SABHA
UNSTARRED QUESTION NO.179
TO BE ANSWERED ON 15.09.2020

POLICY SHIFT OF ASI

179: SHRI SAMBHAJI CHHATRAPATI:

Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

- (a) whether there is any policy shift of ASI with regard to preference on development activities like construction of boundary walls, laying of modern pathways, illumination, ultra-modern washrooms, etc over conservation/restoration/ archaeological investigations; and
- (b) the details of works along with expenditure incurred other than conservation/restoration/archaeological investigations carried out in the last three years at ASI protected monuments including the names of executing agencies in each case, circle-wise?

ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE (INDEPENDENT CHARGE) FOR CULTURE AND TOURISM
(PRAHLAD SINGH PATEL)

- (a) There is no such policy shift. The essential conservation work of protected monuments is attended regularly.
- (b) The details of development works at Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) protected monuments along with expenditure incurred in the last three years, circle-wise, including name of executing agencies are given in annexure.
