1018. SHRI JOSE K. MANI:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

- (a) the priorities set by Government of India's G20 Presidency;
- (b) whether Government has any plans to utilize the G20 platform to formulate a robust strategy for a resilient recovery of global economic growth and recalibrate the action plan for achieving 2030 Sustainable Development Goals agenda;
- (c) if so, the details thereof;
- (d) whether Government has any plans to use India's G20 presidency to champion the cause of developing nations in coping with the climate crisis; and
- (e) if so, the details thereof?

ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS

(SHRI V. MURALEEDHARAN)

(a) to (c) Some of the substantive deliberations in broad priority areas during our G20 Presidency inter alia revolve around inclusive and resilient growth; progress on SDGs; green development and LiFE; technological transformation and public digital infrastructure; reforming multilateral institutions; women led development; and international peace and harmony. Outcomes in these areas would emerge out of the deliberations during the course of our G20 Presidency.

(d) & (e) India has always been a voice of the developing world, including in the area of climate change. India is committed to working towards a global consensus on clean energy and environment during its G20 Presidency.
