ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY
(SMT. ANUPRIYA PATEL)

(a) to (d): Yes, Sir. As per announcement made in Union Budget 2022-23, Special Economic Zones Act, 2005 shall be replaced with a new legislation to widen the ambit of the zones from the extant narrow focus on exports. The new framework would include State governments as key partners to strengthen the single window based clearances and also usher in a simplified regulatory regime with an emphasis on high quality infrastructure.

(e) to (f): Yes, Sir. In order to phase out exemptions and deductions while simultaneously reducing tax rates, the Finance Act, 2016 rationalized the deductions/exemptions under the Act by providing a sunset date for most of the existing profit linked deductions allowed under the various provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961.
