(a) to (c): The Government of India's premier think tank, NITI Aayog came into existence on January 01, 2015, with the objective to collaborate on a shared vision for national development priorities, sectors, and strategies while ensuring active involvement of the states in line with national goals. Over the past eight years, NITI Aayog has offered specialized support - strategic, functional, and technical - to the government at both the central and state levels, on issues crucial to achieving the national development goals. NITI Aayog's three-year Action Agenda was unveiled on August 24, 2017 by then Finance Minister and was prepared after extensive consultations with Central Ministries/Departments, eminent experts/economists and State governments. NITI Aayog has also released a Strategy for New India @ 75 document in 2018.
