ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

(SHRI AJAY BHATT)

- (a) & (b): In respect of Bungalow No. 9, Guru Govind Singh Marg, Lucknow Cantt, the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) informed that no question of international law is involved in the case, and the Court itself would need to be requested to clarify, if any clarification is felt necessary. Legal Adviser (Defence) too had endorsed the views of MEA and advised Department to approach the appropriate judicial forum for necessary clarification. In this regard, matter was taken up by DEO Lucknow with Addl. CGSC to file clarificatory application before Addl. District Judge (Sr. Division) Lucknow in Suit No. 837/2006. Addl. CGSC advised against filing of clarificatory application in Suit No. 837/2006 and hence the same has not been filed. However, Addl. CGSC has advised DEO Lucknow to file an appeal before District and Sessions Court, Lucknow against the Order dated 27.09.2010 in Suit No. 837/2006 on the issue of legality of foreign nationals. Matter is under examination.
- (c): All steps are taken to ensure that no unnecessary litigation is entered into by Government. Suits/appeals are filed only as per advice of Government Counsel/ Legal Adviser (Defence) to protect Government interests.
