MINISTER OF RAILWAYS, COMMUNICATIONS AND

(SHRI ASHWINI VAISHNAW)

(a) to (c): Indian Railways constantly monitors the waiting-list position of all trains. Accordingly, to cater to the needs of extra rush of passengers during peak periods like summer holidays, vacations, festivals etc., as also to cater to the occasional travelling demands arising out of competitive examinations conducted by various organisations, Indian Railways, subject to operational feasibility, resource availability, operates special trains and augments the loads of existing train services on the sector, which is an ongoing process.
