ANSWER

MINISTER OF WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT
(SHRIMATI SMRITI ZUBIN IRANI)

(a) to (d) As a part of rationalisation of Autonomous Bodies, the Rashtriya Mahila Kosh (RMK) is being closed, as the activities being performed by RMK are being performed by Banks, who are directly lending to around 90 Lakh Self Help Groups (SHGs). Earlier such lending was being done by RMK through intermediary organizations, which led to increased cost of borrowing for SHGs. The existing loan portfolio of RMK is being transferred to SIDBI.

The balance available with RMK on 31st March 2023 was Rs.285 crores. There are 37 sanctioned posts in RMK, out of which 25 are vacant. In view of closure of the organization, the question of filling of vacancies does not arise.

(e) the total amount of funds released under the RMK Scheme for the last five years till date stands at Rs.11.32 crore. Disbursal of funds is done to the Intermediary Organizations (IMOs)/NGOs and not to the States. The State-wise list of the same is given at Annexure-1.

(f) the total number of women supported through RMK Scheme since its inception (i.e. 1993) to till date is 7.41 lakh. The State-wise list is given at Annexure-2.
