THE MINISTER OF YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS

(a) to (d): National Sports Federations (NSFs) are voluntary bodies registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860/ Trusts Act/ Companies Act. The Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports recognizes NSFs at the national level for promotion and development of sports as per the laid down criteria in the National Sports Development Code of India, 2011 (“The Sports Code”). The Sports Code is operational from 31.01.2011, to ensure transparency and accountability in the functioning of NSFs for healthy development of sports. As per the Code, NSFs are required to follow democratic and healthy management practices which require them to ensure greater accountability and transparency at all levels; adopt impartial and transparent selection procedures; adhere to age and tenure restrictions of office bearers; adopt and follow the basic universal principles of good governance in sports; adopt proper accounting procedures at all levels; prevent age fraud & sexual harassment of women; comply with the provisions of the Right to Information Act 2005; and hold elections as per model election guidelines issued by the Government. The Sports Code is available on the website of the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, i.e. <https://yas.nic.in>

The Government recognition of NSFs is renewed on year to year basis, which makes them eligible for financial and other forms of support from the Government. A total 49 NSFs were lastly granted annual recognition for 2023, names and addresses of which are given in the Annexure. Out of these 49 NSFs, there is one NSF that is not affiliated with the respective international governing body. There is also an NSF for which no governing body at world level exists. Out of 49 NSFs recognised by the Ministry, 25 NSFs are not affiliated with the Indian Olympic Association.
