- (b) the year-wise details of budget allocated by the Central Government and the foreign country/partner and the expenditure incurred thereon; and
- (c) the project-wise time bound completion target and budget required for it?

ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
(SHRI KIRTI VARDHAN SINGH)

(a) to (c) Development cooperation has been an important component of India's engagement with partner countries. Government of India, as part of its engagement with Global South, has undertaken a number of development projects. Development assistance is primarily carried out through Lines of Credit (LoC), Concessional Finance Scheme (CFS), and Grant-in-Aid projects. The projects undertaken cover a wide range of sectors such as water, power, railways, roads, agriculture, education and healthcare. A large number of projects has already been completed.

Details of major development projects under Lines of Credit, Concessional Finance Scheme(CFS) and Grant-in-aid projects are placed at Annexure-I, Annexure-II and Annexure-III respectively.

The details of actual expenditure incurred by Government of India over the last 5 years is placed at Annexure- IV.
