ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF YOUTH AFFAIRS & SPORTS
(DR. MANSUKH MANDAVIYA)

- (a) The details regarding Mera Yuva Bharat since its launch in October 2023, State-wise and district-wise for Punjab is at annexure.
- (b) An independent third-party evaluation or social audit of the scheme has not been conducted till now as the portal is new and still in development stage.
- (c) to (f) MY Bharat functions as a youth engagement and participation platform, offering multiple modules such as creation of youth profiles, participation in volunteering and experiential learning activities, mentorship from experts, networking with other youth, and features like quizzes, essay writing and CV building, while also providing digital space to

Ministries, organizations, industries and youth clubs to host engagement programmes, with registration being mandatory for participation; although the platform is not a dedicated skill development or employment portal, the opportunities hosted enable youth to build soft skills, understand the functioning of government, and access information on scholarships and higher education, and the reporting framework primarily captures data on registrations, activities, partner onboarding and participation levels, with programmes hosted by onboarded organizations intended to enhance outreach to registered youth and not implying any direct attribution or outcome responsibility of the MY Bharat portal itself. There is no proposal as of now to introduce outcome-based monitoring and publish audited impact reports.

ANNEXURE REFERRED TO IN REPLY TO PART (A) OF THE RAJYA SABHA UNSTARRED Q. NO. 150 FOR 29.01.2026 ASKED BY DR. VIKRAMJIT SINGH SAHNEY REGARDING REGISTRATION UNDER MERA YUVA BHARAT.
