ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
(SHRI KIRTI VARDHAN SINGH)

(a to f) Government had allocated INR 400/- crore for Chabahar Port in the FY 2025-26. The last tranche of this amount was transferred in August 2025. As per the provisions of the main contract signed between the India Ports Global Limited (IPGL) and the Ports and Maritime Organisation of Iran (PMO), India has fulfilled its financial commitment of contributing USD 120 million for the procurement of port equipment. Therefore, there was no further requirement of budget allocation for Chabahar Port for the FY 2026-27.
