Attendance system for Members

Members may be aware that till the second session of 18th Lok Sabha, a Mobile App was being used to mark attendance. Now, in place of this Mobile App, Members are requested to register their attendance by signing on an Electronic Tab by using a Digital Pen to be provided to them at the Lobby Counters. The electronic Tabs shall be placed at all four counters in the Lobby of the Lok Sabha Chamber. Physical attendance register will continue to be kept at the counters, however, Members are advised to use the Tab as a preferred choice and help make Parliament paperless. Members are advised to first select their names from the drop down and after the signature has been affixed on the Tab with the help of the digital pen, press the submit button to register their attendance. A team of NIC engineers will be deployed at each counter for technical assistance.

Members may kindly see for information.
