STARRED QUESTION NO. 426*FOR 16TH DECEMBER, 2016

(a) The budgetary allocation during 2016-17 for Allopathy under Department of Health & Family Welfare is Rs.37,061.55 crore, while the allocation for AYUSH system of medicine during the same period is Rs.1326.20 crore which is about 3.58%. The allocations made by the Government are dependent on various factors like the size of the respective programmes, coverage, scope and availability of funds etc.

(b) The budgetary allocation is by and large sufficient to implement the Ayush programmes being implemented at present. The Government tries to optimise utilization of funds allocated so that no programme or system of medicine is adversely affected. However, if additional budget is made available, the scope of the activities can be increased.

(c) The Government has sought additional funds in the Revised Estimates for 2016-17 as also in the Budget Estimates for 2017-18 as under:-
