ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI KIREN RIJIJU)

(a) to (e): In terms of extant rules and regulations governing the Padma awards, Padma Vibhushan is awarded for "exceptional and distinguished service"; Padma Bhushan for "distinguished service of a high order" and Padma Shri for "distinguished service", in any field of activity. Besides nominations Padma Awards for from State Governments/ UT Administrations, Central Ministries/Departments, Institutes of Excellence, Bharat Ratna awardees and Padma Vibhushan awardees, a large number of recommendations are also received from various other sources like Governors, Chief Ministers, Cabinet Ministers, Members of Parliament, Private institutions/bodies and individuals, etc. The constitution of the Padma Awards committee is approved by the Prime Minister each year. All the nominations/recommendations including the self nominations received upto the last date of nominations are placed before the Padma Awards Committee headed by the Cabinet Secretary for its consideration. The Padma Awards Committee considers all the nominations and makes its recommendations which are then submitted for approval of the President of India. As per practice, minutes of the meetings of the Padma Awards Committee are not recorded.
