ANSWER
THE MINISTER OF STATE IN
THE MINISTRY OF HOUSING & URBAN POVERTY ALLEVIATION
(RAO INTERJIT SINGH)

- (a): In order to protect rights of urban street vendors and to regulate street vending activities, the Government has enacted the Street Vendors (Protection of Livelihood and Regulation of Street Vending) Act, 2014. The Act, inter alia, provides for preparation of plan including determination of vending zones, restricted vending zones and no-vending zones by the Urban Local Bodies/ Local authorities based on local conditions in their respective jurisdictions. The provisions of the Act are being implemented by states in their respective territories.
- (b): The Act provides that Town Vending Committees shall conduct a survey of all existing street vendors, within their area of jurisdiction every five years.
- (c) to (e): As per provisions of the Act, the local authorities of States/ UTs may make bye-laws to provide, inter-alia, for issues such as regulation of the collection of taxes and fees in the vending zones. No such data on the collection of rent/ fee from the vendors is maintained at the central level.
