ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE (IC) FOR LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT
(SHRI BANDARU DATTATREYA)

(a) to (d): The Contract Labour (Regulation & Abolition) Act, 1970 has been enacted to guard against exploitation of contract labour.

Contd..2/-

The Act regulates the working conditions of contract workmen by way of ensuring payment of wages, providing for welfare and health and stipulating same wage rates, holidays, hours of work and other condition of service as applicable to regular workmen in case the contract workmen perform same or similar kind of work as that of the regular workmen. The establishments employing twenty or more contract workmen are covered under the Contract Labour (Regulation & Abolition) Act, 1970 and the contract workers therein get coverage of social security and other benefits under the Employees' Compensation Act (1923), the Industrial Dispute Act (1947), the Employees' State Insurance Act (1948), the Minimum Wages Act (1948), the Provident Funds Act (1925), the Employees Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act (1952), the Maternity Benefit Act (1961), the Contract Labour (Regulation & Abolition) Act (1970), the Payment of Gratuity Act (1972), etc.
