- (e) whether the Government consider relaxation from such penalties in the cases of deposit/withdrawal of money for the reasons such as marriages/ hospitalisation etc.; and
- (f) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

Answer

The Minister of State in the Ministry of Finance (SHRI SANTOSH KUMAR GANGWAR)

- (a) and (c): Details of levy of charges by public sector banks for metropolitan areas, urban, semi-urban and rural branches are at Annex. RBI's circular dated 20.11.2014, provides, inter alia, that Boards of banks are to decide the policy on levy of panel charges on non-maintenance of minimum balances on savings bank account, and that such charges should be in line with the average cost of providing the services. Public sector banks have apprised that the charges are to cover cost of services.

(b) No, madam.

(d) to (f): As per RBI's circular dated 14.8.2014, banks may put in place appropriate Board-approved policy relating to the charges for customers for use of their ATMs. It further provides that if the number of financial and non-financial transactions in a month from other banks' ATMs exceeds three transactions at ATMs located in the six metro cities (viz. Mumbai, New Delhi, Chennai, Kolkata, Bengaluru and Hyderabad) or five transactions at ATMs at all other locations, the charges are capped at Rs. 20 per transaction (plus service tax). For financial transactions exceeding five in a month at SBI's own ATMs, the State Bank of India (SBI) charges Rs. 5 (plus service tax) per transaction.

* Penalty for non maintenance of average minimum balance is proportionate to the shortfall of the actual balance from the minimum balance. In the above calculation table the maximum penalty is shown.

As per Reserve Bank of India (RBI) circular dated 10.8.2012, no penal charges are to be levied for non-operation/non-activation of Basic Savings Bank Deposit (BSBD) accounts.

Vide RBI's circular dated 6.5.2014 levy of penal charges for non-maintenance of minimum balances in any inoperative account is not permitted.
