- (c) the time by which these classes are likely to be started; and
- (d) whether the Government has assessed the lack of human and infrastructure resources required for nursery education in Government schools and if so, the steps taken/proposed to be taken by the Government in this regard?

ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

(SHRI UPENDRA KUSHWAHA)

(a) to (d): No, Madam. The Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education (RTE) Act, 2009, effective from 1st April, 2010, mandates that every child of the age of six to fourteen years shall have the right to free and compulsory education in a neighbourhood school till the completion of his or her elementary education. Section 2(f) of the RTE Act defines 'elementary education' as 'the education from first class to eighth class'.

Section 11 of the RTE Act, 2009 mandates that the appropriate Government may make necessary arrangement for providing free pre-school education for children above the age of three years and to provide early childhood care and education for all children until they complete the age of six years. The State Governments and Union Territory Administrations are the appropriate Government for schools located within their territory.
