ANNEXURE IV

Annexure referred to in reply to part (c) of Lok Sabha Unstarred Question No.4103 for 27.03.2017 regarding "Pending RO of OMCs".

Grievance Redressal Mechanism (Disposing of the complaints relating to selection of Retail Outlets).

Grievance Redressal Mechanism relating to selection of ROs is as under:-

Any complaint should be accompanied by a fee of Rs. 1000/-, only in the form of demand draft of schedule bank, in favour of the Oil Company. Any complaint received without this fee will not be entertained. The complaint received against the selection including eligibility will be disposed off as under:-

(i) Complaints received before or after draw of lots/bidding process along with requisite fee of Rs. 1000/-, will be kept in record and investigation carried out after 30 days of Draw of Lots/bidding process only in following cases:-

- General complaints with verifiable facts
- Complaints against selected candidate

(ii) Any complaint received after 30 days from the date of draw of lots/bidding process will not be entertained.

(i) Anonymous complaints without verifiable facts will not be investigated.

(ii) On receipt of a complaint, the complainant would be asked to submit details of allegation with a view to prima facie substantiate the allegations along with supporting documents, if any. While seeking documents and details, the complainant will be advised that if during the investigations, complaint is found to be false and/or without substance, the Corporation reserves the right to take action against the complainant as provided under the law and fee forfeited.

(iii) In case a complaint is received against an applicant, who has not been selected in draw of lots/bidding process, the same will be kept in abeyance. In case the LOI against selected candidate is cancelled and the applicant against whom the complaint was received gets selected in the next draw or on account of bidding process, the complaint will only then be investigated.

- (iv) If the complaint is not required to be investigated the fee received will be refunded to the complainant informing that the complaint has not been investigated since the candidate against whom the complaint has been made has not been selected. The fee will be refunded after issuance of LOA to the selected candidate.
- (v) Corporation will examine response of the complainant and if it is found that the complaint does not have specific and verifiable allegations, the same will be filed and complaint fee will be forfeited.
- (vi) If a decision is taken to investigate the complaint, decision on the complaint will be taken as under and intimated to the complainant:-

(a) Complaints not substantiated:

In case the complaint is not substantiated it will be filed and complaint fee will be forfeited.

(b) Established Complaints:

In case of established complaint, suitable action would be taken and complaint fee collected will be refunded.

It may not be possible to specify time limit for disposal of complaints as investigation may involve verification of facts submitted by the applicant with various Government authorities, etc.
