ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE (IC) IN THE MINISTRY OF COAL, POWER, NEW & RENEWABLE ENERGY AND MINES

(SHRI PIYUSH GOYAL)

(a): CIL and its subsidiaries have taken and adopted various new initiatives and policies for enhancing its production. Some of the initiatives and policies are as follows:

1. Auction of Linkages for Non-Power sector consumers introduced as per policy guidelines dated 15.02.2016 issued by this Ministry.
2. In 2015-16, Special forward E-auction introduced in terms of this Ministry's guidelines specifically for the power producers.
3. The ceiling for E-auction has been revised from present level of around 10% of the production up-to 20 % of production.
4. The criteria for annual requirement for supply of coal through State Nominated Agencies (SNA) revised from the level of 4200 TPA to 10,000 TPA.
5. Third Party Sampling facility for power sector through Central Institute of Mining and Fuel Research (CIMFR) introduced as per this Ministry's directive dated 26.11.2015.
6. Price rationalization of higher grade coal was carried out.

7. Performance incentive for supply beyond 90% of Annual contracted quantity (ACQ) has been dispensed with for higher grade coal -G5 and above.
8. Earnest Money Deposit (EMD) rationalization in E-auction scheme. EMD for spot and forward e-auction has been rationalised to Rs 200/ tonne from existing Rs 400-500/ tonne. For auction exclusive for non-power, it was rationalized to 10% of reserved price.
9. Special forward e-auction for power producers and exclusive e-auction for non-power consumers and given with flexible lifting period.
10. Electronic Service Delivery like E-procurement, E-Reverse Auction, E-payment, Bill Tracking System, Grievance Re-dressal System.
11. Massive modernization plan drawn up for:
 - a. Introduction of latest production technology like surface miners for open cast mines,
 - b. Continuous miners for underground mines.
12. Improvement in measurement system of Coal & Overburden through 3D Terrestrial Laser Scanner System adopted in all major mines.
