ANSWER

वाणिज्य एवं उद्योग राज्य मंत्री (श्रीमती निर्मला सीतारमण) (स्वतंत्र प्रभार)

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY
(INDEPENDENT CHARGE)
(SMT. NIRMALA SITHARAMAN)

(a) Yes, Madam.

(b) Govt. has taken the policy decision to expand the research capabilities of the centre for WTO Studies under renamed Institution Centre for Research and International Trade (CRIT) which will continue to be a part of Indian Institute of Foreign Trade (IIFT). Accordingly, the Department has approved the proposal to set up four additional Centres in all, viz. Centre for Trade and Investment Law, 'Centre for Regional Trade', 'Centre for Trade-Related Capacity Building', and 'Centre for Trade Promotion' along with existing Centre for WTO Studies (since 1999). These Centres are being formed to widen scope to better handle contemporary and future requirements like international trade law, regional studies, trade promotion and capacity building. Two of proposed new four Centres namely 'Centre for Trade and Investment Law', and 'Centre for Regional Trade' have already become operational this year. Stated aims and objectives of the Scheme are:

i) Centre for Research and International Trade:

To influence international discourse on trade and investment issues in consonance with India's interest. Detail objective of Centre for Research and International Trade (CRIT) may be seen at Annexure-I

ii) Centre for WTO Studies:

To provide institutional support to the government on negotiations in WTO as well as on other trade related issue. Detail objectives of Centre for WTO Studies, as per approved bye-laws, may be seen at Annexure-II.

iii) Centre for Trade and Investment Law:

For creating dedicated pool of legal experts who can advise the govt. on trade and investment issues. Without a risk of conflict of interest. Detail objectives of Centre for Trade and Investment Law (CTIL), as per approved bye-laws, may be seen at Annexure-III.

iv) Centre for Regional Trade:

For analyzing economic developments in different regions and assessing their implications for India with China chair, ASEAN chair, Africa Chair to start with. Detail objectives of Centre for Regional Trade (CRT), as per approved bye-laws, may be seen at Annexure-IV.

v) Centre for Trade-related capacity building:

To undertake training for government officials/stake holders of India, other 'least developed countries' and developing countries in capacity building for WTO matters (proposed). Detail objective this centre will be worked out when the bye-laws are framed.

vi) Centre for Trade Promotion:

To undertake research for enhancing India's market access and promoting exports. Its activities would have territory/product focus. It would advise the Government and exporters on export opportunities, constraints and market access barriers in main markets (proposed).
