ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE FOR SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY AND EARTH SCIENCES
(SHRI Y. S. CHOWDARY)

- (a) The CSIR-North East Institute of Science & Technology (CSIR-NEIST) at Jorhat, Assam was established in the year 1961 as a multidisciplinary laboratory. Its major thrust of R&D activities has been to develop indigenous technologies by utilizing the immense natural wealth of India in general and NE region in particular and thus contributing to the region as well as country's industrial growth and economic prosperity. Over the years, the Institute has generated several technologies in the areas of Biological Sciences, Chemical Sciences, Engineering Sciences, Geoscience and Materials Science of which about 60% were commercial successes culminating in setting up of various industrial ventures throughout the country. The Institute also developed expertise in the areas like Natural Products Chemistry, Drugs and Drug intermediates, VSK Cement Plant Technology, Agro-technologies, Petroleum microbiology and petrochemicals, Crude oil transportation, Paper and paper products, Beneficiation chemicals, Ecology and Environment studies, Geotechnical investigations, Foundation design engineering, Soil and Building materials, Membrane Technologies, Geoscience and seismic surveillance studies, etc.

- (b) CSIR-NEIST has received Rs 368.76 crore from different central government agencies including CSIR during April 2012 to July 2017 to carryout various research activities.
- (c) The number of vacant posts that are there in this institute presently are as follows:
