FDI IN PRIVATE SECURITY INDUSTRIES

†658. SHRI ARVIND SAWANT:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

- (a) whether the Government has granted permission for Foreign Direct Investment in private security industry and if so, the specific reasons therefor;
- (b) whether the process for private security companies for procurement of arms and ammunition will be changed;
- (c) whether the Government has considered the impact of the permission for Foreign Direct Investment in private security industry;
- (d) if so, the details thereof;
- (e) the security measures taken by the Government to ensure that the fire arms procured by such companies are not sold illegally to common people; and
- (f) whether the Government proposes to maintain the Central database with regard to complete details of registered and non-registered private security agencies and the people employed by these agencies?

ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI HANSRAJ GANGARAM AHIR)

(a): Yes Madam, the extant policy of the Government allows Foreign Direct Investment in the private security industry upto 49% with Government approval, subject to applicable laws/regulations, security and other conditionalities.

L.S.US.Q.NO.658 FOR 19.12.2017

- (b): There is no change in the process for procurement of arms and ammunition by a private security company as per Arms Act, 1959 and Arms Rules 2016.
- (c) & (d): As there is no fresh proposal under consideration at present to amend the Private Security Agencies (Regulation) Act, 2005 [PSAR Act, 2005], to modify FDI limit in the private security agencies, the question does not arise.
- (e): Sections 19 to 27 of the Arms Act, 1959 provide that arms cannot be issued/sold to unauthorized individuals.
- (f): A web portal has been developed to enable the State Governments/Controlling Authorities to maintain a database for effective monitoring of the relevant provisions of PSAR Act, 2005.
