ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES
AND PENSIONS AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE
(DR. JITENDRA SINGH)

(a): Centralized data regarding employees who retired/resigned during last three years is not maintained.

(b): Vacancies caused due to retirement, death, promotion etc. are required to be filled following provisions of recruitment rules for the post. The number of direct recruitments made by Staff Selection Commission and Union Public Service Commission for the last three years is as per table below:

Year	Number of candidates recommended by UPSC		Number of candidates recommended by SSC
	Recruitment by Examination	Direct Recruitment by Selection	All India Competitive Examination	Selection posts
2014-15	5969	2303	57542	524
2015-16	5659	1207	24604	534
2016-17	4612	1123	68496	384

(c): As per the available information, provisions under FR 56(j) and similar provisions under service rules have been invoked/recommended in case of 53 Group 'A' officers and 123 Group 'B' officers of Central Civil Services, during the period from 1st July 2014 till 31st October 2017.

(d) & (e): As per the Annual Report on Pay and Allowances of Central Government Civilian Employees, the number of vacant posts in position in various Ministries/ Departments is 4,12,752 out of total sanctioned strength of 36,33,935 as on 01.03.2016.
