ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF STATE FOR LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI P. P. CHAUDHARY) AND CORPORATE AFFAIRS

(a) to (e): The term "Corporate Governance" has not been defined under the Companies Act, 2013. However, the Companies Act, 2013 which replaces the Companies Act, 1956 incorporates various provisions aimed at strengthening of corporate governance in companies in India. These include, inter-alia, enhanced responsibilities for the Board and its committees like the Audit Committee and Nomination and Remuneration Committee, enhanced disclosures to stakeholders, appointment of Independent Directors, stricter norms for ensuring independence and accountability of auditors and greater level of investor protection. Further, the India Accounting Standards (Ind AS) have also been notified in February, 2015, and are expected to contribute to improved corporate governance.

Further, during the last three years & the current year the Ministry has ordered investigations through Serious Fraud Investigation Office (SFIO) into the affairs of 575 companies on account of alleged frauds. The details are attached at Annexure.

Investigations by SFIO have not unearthed any nexus between bureaucrats and corporate houses for the purpose of committing corporate frauds as of now.
