ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT
(DR. SATYA PAL SINGH)

(a) to (c): Yes Madam. The Technical Education Quality Improvement Programme (TEQIP) phase-III project funded by the World Bank, for improving the quality of technical education is being implemented in 19 educationally backward States with effect from April 2017 for 3 years. In addition, well performing TEQIP-I & II institutes from States other than 19 focus states, including from Gujarat, are also participating for mentoring purposes. Under this, the engineering colleges prepare Institution Development Proposals (IDPs), which are approved after due evaluation. So far, (10) IDPs have been received from Gujarat. Details of proposal are at Annexure.

As per the proposals submitted by 10 institutes (details at Annexure), only Birla Vishvakarma Mahavidyalaya (BVM), Vallabh Vidynagar met the eligibility requirements and got selected through challenge method for participation in TEQIP-III.
