उत्तर

ANSWER

वस्त्र राज्य मंत्री (श्री अजय टम्टा)

MINISTER OF STATE FOR TEXTILES
(SHRI AJAY TAMTA)

(a): Under Technology Up-gradation Fund Scheme, state-wise funds are not allocated. However Rs. 841.45 crore has been released to units situated in the State of Madhya Pradesh as on 20.07.2018.

(b) & (c): Yes, Madam. Employment generation and promotion of exports through "Make in India" with "Zero effect and Zero defect" is one of the major objectives of the Amended Technology Upgradation Fund Scheme (ATUFS) implemented during 13.01.2016 to 31.03.2022. Further, in order to incentivize employment generation and production in garmenting sector an additional incentive of 10% is also provided to garmenting units availing Capital Investment Subsidy under ATUFS for installation of benchmarked eligible machinery under the Scheme for Production and Employment Linked Support for Garmenting Units (PELSGU) implemented during 13.01.2016 to 31.03.2019. The additional subsidy is subject to achieving the target of production and employment equal to or more than that of the projection given in the Detailed Project Report (DPR) by the Unit.
