protect & safeguard the interests of workers with due regard to creating a healthy work environment for higher production and productivity and to provide social security to the labour force in tandem with the process of liberalization through 40 Central Labour Laws; dealing with minimum wages, accidental and social security benefits, occupational safety and health, conditions of employment, disciplinary action, formation of trade unions, industrial relations etc.

In order to protect interest of the workers, the office of Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) conducts inspections from time to time through its regional offices under various Labour Laws in respect of establishments falling under the Central Sphere to ensure that statutory provisions are implemented. Legal actions are initiated as per law in case of any violation of aforesaid laws. No such complaint has been received by the office of Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) regarding any company of Mumbai.
