(a) to (e): University of Delhi has informed that there is no proposal to introduce entrance test for all college admissions. The University has been conducting entrance test for the Undergraduate and Postgraduate courses for the past several years. However, the computer based entrance tests have been introduced since 2018. The University conducts entrance test for all PG courses and following Undergraduate courses:

Faculty of Applied Social Sciences and Humanities	· Bachelor of Business Economics · Bachelor of Management Studies · Bachelor of Business Administration (Financial Investment Analysis)
Cluster Innovation Centre	· B.Tech. (Information Technology and Mathematical Innovations) · B.A. (H) Humanities and Social Sciences
Faculty of Education	· Bachelors of Elementary Education
Faculty of Inter-disciplinary & Applied Sciences	· Bachelor of Science in Physical Education, Health Education & Sports
Indraprastha College for Women	· B.A. (H) Multimedia and Mass Communication
Faculty of Social Science	· Five Year Integrated programme in Journalism in Delhi School of Journalism

Class XII marks are the criterion for all undergraduate admissions, except the above mentioned courses.
