ANSWER

वाणिज्य एवं उद्योग मंत्री (श्री पीयूष गोयल)

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE & INDUSTRY
(SHRI PIYUSH GOYAL)

- (a): As per the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD)'s World Investment Report (WIR) 2017, 2018 & 2019, India has been in the top ten FDI hosting countries during each of the last three years.
- (b): No such data on FDI projects or MoUs is centrally maintained.
- (c): Government does not fix targets for FDI inflows as FDI is largely a matter of private business decisions. FDI inflows depend on a host of factors such as availability of natural resources, market size, infrastructure, general investment climate as well as macro-economic stability and investment decisions of foreign investors.
- (d): The State and department-wise information on FDI projects is not centrally maintained. However, sector-wise details are at Annexure-I.
