ANSWER

MINISTER OF ELECTRONICS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (SHRI RAVI SHANKAR PRASAD)

(a): Yes, Sir. The law on Data Protection law is under formulation. The Government constituted a committee of expert on data protection, chaired by Justice (Retd) B.N. Srikrishna, Supreme Court of India to study various issues relating to data protection and come out with Data Protection Bill. The said committee had also prepared a draft Personal Data Protection Bill (PDPB) on which consultations are being held and the bill is intended to be placed in parliament soon.

(b): Yes, Sir. Government held multiple rounds of consultation on data protection framework of India. Initially on White Paper which was released by the said committee on 27th November 2017 to solicit public comments. In addition, public consultation meetings were held by the Committee in four major cities. The deadline for submission of responses in this phase was 31st January 2018. The committee deliberated on various inputs & has submitted its report along with draft Bill to Government post which the report and the draft Bill were placed in the public domain for consultations.
