- (b) the number of complaints received in this regard; and
- (c) the details of the action taken in regard to these complaints?

ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE
MINISTRY OF HOUSING AND URBAN AFFAIRS
(SHRI KAUSHAL KISHORE)

(a) Delhi Development Authority (DDA) has informed that there is no horticulture land of DDA at Dwarka Dabri Mor, New Delhi. It is further informed that a vegetable and fruit market exists at Dwarka Dabri Mor, New Delhi. Sale of chicken, mutton and fish is permitted by DDA in the allotment letter to the beneficiary allottees of the stall.

(b)&(c) DDA has informed that complaints have been received from the Resident Welfare Association of Syndicate Enclave & Raghu Nagar (nearby Residential Colony) against the vendors who are selling fish/chicken/mutton from these stalls. As and when any complaint regarding illegal sale of fish, chicken, mutton etc. is received, the area is surveyed and the items which the allottees are selling in violation of the terms and conditions of allotment letter, are disallowed and allottees are asked to remove such items immediately from the market.
