The Bonded Labour System has been abolished by Law throughout the country by an Ordinance with effect from 24.10.1975 and this Law was replaced by the Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Act, 1976. The Act provides for the abolition of Bonded Labour System with a view to prevent the economic and physical exploitation of the weaker sections of the people. Under the Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Act, 1976 identification, release and rehabilitation of freed bonded labour is the direct responsibility of the concerned States/Union Territories.

The Scheme was last modified in May, 2016. A revised Central Sector Scheme for Rehabilitation of Bonded Labourer-2016 is in operation since 17.05.2016. As per the new Scheme, the Central Government bears 100% expenditure and the State Governments are not required to pay any matching contribution for the purpose of cash rehabilitation assistance, evaluatory studies, surveys and awareness campaigns against bonded labour. Under the Scheme, a bonded labour rehabilitation fund is created at the District level by each State with a permanent corpus of at least Rs.10 Lakh at the disposal of the District Magistrate. This fund is utilized for extending immediate financial help to the released bonded labour. Immediate financial assistance up to Rs.20,000/- per bonded labour is provided by the concerned District Magistrate from the corpus fund. This amount is fully reimbursed by the Central Government to the State Government. Further, under the Scheme financial

In addition to the financial assistance, the beneficiaries are also entitled for the following non-cash assistance from the respective State Governments:
