- (c) whether the companies selling medicines online have been found to supply medicines for abortion and other materials without prescription by the doctors and if so, the details thereof; and
- (d) the corrective measures/schemes of the Government to check such malpractices?

ANSWER THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI ASHWINI KUMAR CHOUBEY)

- (a) & b): The Ministry of AYUSH in the Central Government has not put any ban on sellers for online sale of Ayurvedic, Siddha, Unani and Homoeopathy (ASU&H) medicines. Whereas as per Section 33-EEC of the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940, State Governments are empowered inter alia to prohibit sell, stock or exhibit or offer for sale or distribute any Ayurvedic, Siddha or Unani drug which has been manufactured in contravention of any of the provisions of the Act and Rules made there under. Provisions for sale license of Homoeopathic drugs are prescribed in the Drugs and Cosmetics, Rules 1945 but no such specific provisions for sale license of Ayurvedic, Siddha and Unani medicines are prescribed.
- (c): Instances of online selling of ASU&H medicines for abortion has not been reported since the provisions of the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940 and Rules there under pertaining to these medicines are enforced by the State Governments and the records of any violation or contravention are not maintained at the central level unless reported. Food and Drugs Administration of Maharashtra State have reported incidence of four cases of allopathic drugs for abortion, details are given in the annexure.
