ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF
SKILL DEVELOPMENT AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP
(SHRI R. K. SINGH)

(a), (c) and (d) The PMKVY 2.0 (2016-20) is coming to an end on 31st March, 2021, and Government is examining the next version of PMKVY taking into account the lessons learnt during implementation of PMKVY 2.0. There is no proposal under examination of the Ministry for setting up a National Institute of Skill Development.

(b) Yes Sir, Sector Skill Councils (SSCs) have been encouraged to assess the demand generation not only for formal sector but also for informal sector. For this SSCs carries out periodical demand-supply gap analysis and also engages with the industry and industry associations in this sector. Further, National Skill Development Corporation (NSDC) has launched ASEEM (Aatmanirbhar Skilled Employee Employer Mapping) portal which is a directory of all skilled personnel in the country available to industry for recruitment. This portal also helps in identifying industry wise demand.
