ANSWER
THE MINISTER OF STATE (INDEPENDENT CHARGE)
FOR YOUTH AFFAIRS & SPORTS
{ SHRI KIREN RIJIJU }

(a) to (c) Yes, Sir. 'Sports' being a State subject the responsibility for providing sports facilities, including construction of stadiums rests with the State / Union Territory Governments. Central Government supplements efforts of the State/Union Territories by bridging the critical gaps in sports infrastructure. Accordingly, under the Khelo India Scheme, this Ministry has sanctioned 2 projects in West Bengal and 4 projects in Gujarat for development of sports infrastructure during the last three years and the current year. The details of funds released by the Union Government for these projects for the aforesaid time period are given at Annexure - I. Further, financial assistance has been provided through National Sports Development Fund and Sports Authority of India for development of sports infrastructure in West Bengal and Gujarat during the last three years and the current year. The year-wise details of the same for the aforesaid time period are given at Annexure - II.
