Further, the Ministry allows for registering complaint through various forum viz. CPGRAMS, complaint through State/ UT helpline, written complaints, etc. Complaints received in the Ministry are forwarded to the concerned States/Union Territories (UTs) for taking appropriate action including investigation. In some cases, special National Monitors are also sent for investigation into the matter. Steps have been taken to strengthen transparency and accountability which include geo-tagging of assets, Direct Benefit Transfer (DBT), National electronic Fund Management System (Ne-FMS), Aadhaar Based Payment System (ABPS), Software for Estimate Calculation using Rural rates for Employment (SECURE) and establishment of independent social audit units and appointment of Ombudspersons in the States/UTs. Also State/UT specific reviews are undertaken from time to time.
