(SHRI KIREN RIJJU)

(a) & (b): The requisite information may please be seen in the statement attached at Annexure 'A'

(c) & (d): To promote Ayurved as well as other AYUSH systems amongst people within and outside the country, various IEC activities are being taken up with adequate dissemination of information through electronic, press and social media. On 21st of June, every year, International Yoga Day is organized at national and international level. International and national conferences, workshops, stake-holders meets, industry conclave have been organized on regular basis.

Ministry of AYUSH has issued document titled "Guidelines for Registered AYUSH practitioners of respective system of AYUSH for COVID 19"

The Ministry of AYUSH had launched a three-month awareness campaign on "AYUSH for Immunity" on 14.08.2020, with the objective of acquainting the people with the strengths of various Ayush-based solutions including Yoga for enhancing immunity and preventing diseases.

Interdisciplinary AYUSH Research & Development task Force has been constituted, which is carrying out the activities related to scientific validation of work of AYUSH Medicines on fast track.

National AYUSH Mission is the flagship scheme of Ministry under which grants-in-aid is provided to States / UTs to take up various activities to develop and promote Ayurved as well as other AYUSH healthcare facilities.

Ministry of AYUSH is adopting one village per block as AYUSH Gram for adoption of method and practice of AYUSH way of life and interventions of health care. In AYUSH Gram AYUSH based lifestyle are promoted through behavioral changes, communication, training of village health workers towards identification and use of local medicinal herbs.

To streamline/facilitate research of AYUSH medicines, total 05 Research Councils dedicated to different AYUSH systems or healthcare are functioning under Ministry of AYUSH. CCRH under the villages Swasthya Rakshan program is adopted 55 villages, where local populations are being provided health care at their door step.
