ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF ENVIRONMENT, FOREST AND CLIMATE CHANGE
(SHRI BABUL SUPRIYO)

(a) and (b): Yes, Sir. The web portal link is <https://www.cckpindia.nic.in/>. The portal contains information regarding, inter alia, India’s climate profile, National policy framework, Nationally Determined Contributions (NDCs), mitigation and adaptation actions, etc. The benefit of the portal is that it is a single point information resource, as well as a knowledge repository regarding a broad range of topics on climate action in India and International climate negotiations. The main objective of the Portal is to disseminate information among citizens about the Government’s steps to combat climate change.
