उत्तर
ANSWER
वस्त्र मंत्री (श्रीमती स्मृति जूबिन इरानी)
MINISTER OF TEXTILES
(SMT. SMRITI ZUBIN IRANI)

(a): Samarth- skill development and capacity building in textiles sector is a central sector scheme targeted for training skill development and employment generation through direct participation of Industry, State Government Agencies, Industry Associations. With that regard, Ministry of Textiles has partnered with 92 textile manufacturers, 13 State Government agencies, 10 Industry Associations, 4 Sectoral organizations under Ministry of Textiles and a target for training of 3,30,379 beneficiaries have been allocated for implementation.

As far as the State of Andhra Pradesh is concerned, there is no State Agency which has partnered with Ministry of Textiles for participation in Samarth Scheme. The targets allocated to all State Government Agencies and Industry is annexed.

(b): There is no state- wise allocation of funds under Samarth. The cost of training programme under the scheme is released directly to the Implementing Partners based on physical milestones of training.
