ANSWER
वस्त्र मंत्री (श्री पीयूष गोयल)
MINISTER OF TEXTILES
(SHRI PIYUSH GOYAL)

(a) to (e):- A statement is laid on the Table of the House.

(a): In order to meet the skill gap in the industry, Ministry of Textiles is implementing Samarth-Scheme for Capacity Building in Textile Sector- with the objective to provide demand driven, placement oriented skilling programmes to supplement the efforts of the industry in creating employment in textile and related sectors, covering the entire value chain of textiles, excluding Spinning and Weaving in organized sector. The salient features of the scheme are: -

    (i)   Implemented through Textile Industry/ Industry Associations, State Government agencies and Sectoral Organizations of Ministry

    (ii)   Formulated as per broad skilling framework adopted by Ministry of Skill Development & Entrepreneurship (MSDE)

    (iii)   Comprise entry level skilling (Fresh workers) and Upskilling (existing worker)

    (iv)   Mandatory placement of trainees- 70% for entry level & 90% for upskilling under organized sector

    (v)   Aadhaar Enabled Biometric Attendance System (AEBAS) and Web based centralized Management Information System (MIS) for monitoring

    (vi)   Call centre for collecting feedback and grievance redressal

    (vii)   Physical verification of training centres with geo-tagging /time-stamped photographs

(b) to (d): The proposals were invited from State Government Agencies/ Industry/ Industry Associations for undertaking training programmes under the Samarth Scheme. After evaluation of these proposals, the Ministry of Textiles has partnered with 13 State Government Agencies, 90 Textile Manufacturers, 11 Industry Associations and 4 Sectoral Organizations of Ministry of Textiles for training of 3.3 lakh beneficiaries in textile sector, after physical verification of training centres. There is no state-wise allocation of funds under Samarth and the cost of training programme is released directly to Implementing Partners (IPs). The details of funds released to IPs under Samarth during last 2 years are given below:
