ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI NITYANAND RAI)

(a) to (d): The National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB) is the nodal agency which compiles the data on crimes including fake currency as reported to publication 'Crime in India'. The published reports are available till the year 2019. The State/UT-wise details of the Fake Indian Currency Notes seized, number of FIRs registered and number of accused during the years 2018 and 2019 are as per the Annexure.

The Intelligence and Security Agencies of Centre and State keep a close watch on the complete chain of illegal network involved in circulation of fake currency including its source, ingress, logistics, perpetrators, etc. and take appropriate action as per law.

The Government has taken various measures to check the smuggling and circulation of fake currencies into the country, which inter-alia, include:

- i. Counterfeiting of currency notes is an offence under Indian Penal Code, 1860 (Section 489 (A-E)). Further, production, smuggling or circulation of High Quality Fake Indian paper currency, coin or any other material has been made a terrorist act under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967.
- ii. FICN Coordination Group (FCORD) has been formed by the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) to share intelligence/information amongst the different security agencies of the States/Centre to counter the problem of circulation of fake currency notes in the country.

- iii. A Terror Funding and Fake Currency Cell (TFFC) has been constituted in National investigation agency (NIA) to conduct focused investigation of Terror Funding and Fake Currency cases.
- iv. Security at the international borders has been strengthened by using new surveillance technology, deploying additional manpower for round the clock surveillance, establishing observation posts along the international border, erection of border fencing and intensive patrolling.
- v. A Memorandum of Understanding has been signed between India and

  Bangladesh to prevent and counter smuggling & circulation of Fake

  Currency Notes.
- vi. Training programmes are conducted for the officers of Bangladesh and Nepal Police to develop their competence in the areas of detection, investigation and effective prosecution of cases relating to fake currency.

The Reserve Bank of India has taken various measures including augmenting security features on bank notes so as to render counterfeiting difficult and expensive and running awareness programmes for membership of public and cash handlers so as to facilitate detection of counterfeit.
