ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE

(DR. BHARATI PRAVIN PAWAR)

(a) & (b)

Yes sir. JSY is being implemented across the country including North Eastern States. JSY incentive provided to the eligible beneficiaries is different in 'Low Performing States' and 'High Performing States'. The State of Bihar falls under Low Performing State and the details of JSY incentive provided to the eligible beneficiaries in Bihar are as follows:

Rural area (Rs.)	Urban area (Rs.)	Eligibility
Financial Assistance for Institutional Delivery
1400	1000	Available to all women regardless of age and number of children for delivery in government /private accredited health facilities.
Financial Assistance for Home Delivery
500	500	Available only to BPL women who prefer to deliver at home regardless of age and number of children

(c) Allocation of funds for JSY scheme is done by National Health Mission (NHM) under RCH Flexible Pool. There is no separate fund allocation for Janani Suraksha Yojana.

Details of financial support in the form of funds provided under NHM and number of beneficiaries benefitted at the national level during the last three years is as follows:

Financial year	State Program Implementation Plan Approval (Rs in Crore)	JSY Beneficiaries (Number in Lakh)
2018-19	1976.23	100.41
2019-20	2032.25	107.35
2020-21 (provisional)	2113.31	99.92
