ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

(SHRI NITYANAND RAI)

(a) to (b) Caste - wise data of custodial deaths of children is not maintained by National Human Rights Commission(NHRC)/National Crime Records Bureau(NCRB).

(c) to (e) The "Police", "Prison" and " Public Order" are State Subjects as per Seventh Schedule of the Constitution. It is for the respective State Governments to take action in every crime. The Central Government does not intervene directly in these matters, but does issue advisories from time to time, while the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) issues guidelines and recommendations. Pursuant to the guidelines issued by NHRC, every custodial death in the country is reported to the Commission within twenty four hours by respective authorities and said guidelines does not mandate the authorities to specify the caste of the victims. The disciplinary action against the erring police personnel is to be taken by respective State Government concerned as per extant rules, procedures etc.
