THE MINISTER OF POWER AND NEW & RENEWABLE ENERGY

(SHRI R.K. SINGH)

(a) to (e):

Government of India launched the Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Gram Jyoti Yojana (DDUGJY) in December, 2014 for rural electrification works across the country. Saubhagya Scheme was launched was in October, 2017 with the objective of achieving Universal Household electrification for providing electricity connections to all willing un-electrified households by March, 2019. As reported by the State of Assam, all the inhabited census villages stand electrified, as on 28 April 2018.

As per the information made available by the State, 17,45,149 HHs were electrified in Assam by 31.03.2019. Further, 2,00,000 Households that were earlier unwilling, gave their willingness later to obtain electricity connections. They were also electrified under Saubhagya. Thereafter, the Govt. of India has also sanctioned in July, 2021, electrification of 4,80,249 Households that were unwilling earlier, but have opted for connections now.

DDUGJY and Saubhagya provide for electrification of households. Electrification of schools, health centres and other public institutions are to be carried out by the States under other schemes. DDUGJY and Saubhagya did not have provisions for Street lights, which are to be installed under other schemes.

The Constituency-wise details of households covered under DDUGJY under On Grid and Off Grid are given as Annexure I & II. Under DDUGJY scheme, Decentralized Distributed Generation (DDG) was executed for electrification of remote villages through solar PV Microgrid and standalone system. The scheme was executed for those villages where Conventional grid connectivity is either not feasible or cost effective. 14886 nos of Households have been electrified in 65 nos. of villages under DDG Microgrids, while 26822 nos. of Households were electrified in 348 villages under DDG Standalone systems.
