ANSWER

वाणिज्य एवं उद्योग मंत्रालय में राज्य मंत्री (श्री सोम प्रकाश)

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE & INDUSTRY
(SHRI SOM PARKASH)

- (a) to (c) : The National Design Policy, 2007 envisaged that four new National Institutes of Design shall be set up in addition to the National Institute of Design, Ahmedabad. Accordingly, Government of India has recently established four new National Institutes of Design, one each in Andhra Pradesh, Assam, Haryana and Madhya Pradesh to cater to the requirements of different regions of the country. These four new NIDs have started functioning and are offering courses in Bachelor of Design to students from all across the country. As such, there is no proposal for a satellite centre under consideration.
