- (c) the total number of farmers who are unable to receive the benefits as their cases are pending for verification or approval in online portal; and
- (d) the reasons for the cases remaining pending for verification or approval?

ANSWER

MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FARMERS WELFARE

कृषि एवं किसान कल्याण मंत्री (SHRI NARENDRA SINGH TOMAR)

(a) & (b) In the Satara district of Maharashtra, a total of 5,07,629 eligible farmers have benefitted under PM-KISAN and an amount of Rs. 836.90 Crore has been released to them through various instalments.

(c) & (d) Under PM-KISAN, farmers can register themselves through the PM-KISAN portal, PM-KISAN app, and by visiting Common Service Centers (CSCs). The applications received on the PM-KISAN portal through these sources are then sent to the respective State/UT Governments for further verification and approval.

In the State of Maharashtra, as on 31/03/2022, a total of 30,43,615 applications have been received on PM-KISAN portal through these sources, out of which 2,66,406 applications of farmers are currently pending for approval of State Government.
